THE PRESIDENT'S REMARKS

The academic year covered in this Report, from 1 July 2004 to 30 June 2005, took us through the final stage in achieving a new governing structure for the Institute. The summer months of 2005 saw a series of meetings with legal counsel representing the Government of Ontario, our own legal counsel and that for the University of St. Michael's College.

As was stated in the previous Report, the preparations to bring the governance of USMC into line with the law of Ontario, when put into effect, will put an end to the indirect and now, largely theoretical control of St. Michael's by the Congregation of St. Basil, the founding authority for both St. Michael's College and the Pontifical Institute. As the Basilian General Council will no longer appoint the majority of its members, the new Collegium of St. Michael's will be an inappropriate structure to secure the essential academic autonomy and ecclesiastical accountability of the Pontifical Institute, at least from the perspective of canon law and the Holy See. As a consequence, the Institute is seeking separate civil incorporation by the Government of Ontario in order to allow the Basilian Fathers to retain ownership of PIMS and to preserve its pontifical status. The first steps in drafting such a civil constitution were undertaken during the year 2003-2004, with the full support and cooperation of St. Michael's College, of the Archdiocese of Toronto, and of the General Council of the Basilian Fathers.

FUND RAISING

Since the year 2000, as regular readers of this Report will assuredly know, the endowment of the Leonard Boyle Chair in Manuscript Studies has been the priority concern in fund raising, an initiative that would have been unthinkable without the general support of the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation of New York. The commitment by the Trustees of a sum to match all donations on a dollar for dollar basis was the indispensable condition that made our aim to establish such an endowed chair practicable, and the subsequent support from a wide variety of private individuals and other foundations was certainly postulated on their awareness of the Mellon support. As this Report goes to press, we enjoy the certainty that the goal of $2.5 million Canadian dollars is already secure, and we look forward to a general announcement of the final results of our campaign in the New Year.

ACADEMIC ASPECTS

In the academic year 2004-2005 the post-doctoral programme entered its seventh consecutive year, with eight candidates in all including four Mellon Fellows (below):

DANIEL HOBBS, an American Citizen, received his doctorate from the Medieval Institute at the University of Notre Dame. He is currently on leave from the University of Texas – Arlington. He is the author of "The Schoolman as Public Intellectual: Jean Gerson and the Late Medieval Tract," which appeared in American Historical Review in 2003, and of articles published in Humanistica Lovaniensia, and the Proceedings of the Medieval Association of the Midwest. His current research is devoted to Jean Gerson and questions of authorship and publicity before print.

KOSTIS KOURELIS, a citizen of Greece and the U.S.A., received his PhD from the University of Pennsylvania in 2003, and is currently Assistant Professor in Art History at Clemson University, South Carolina. A number of his essays on the architecture and archaeology of medieval Greece have appeared or are forthcoming in journals and collections by diverse hands. His interest in medieval architectural history also extends forward to the present: an article on the architecture of The Lord of the Rings is scheduled to appear in From Hobbits to Hollywood: Essays on Peter Jackson's "Lord of the Rings." During the current year, he will be researching the archaeologies of medieval villages in Sicily and the Peloponnese.

JOHN OTT, an American citizen, who received his doctorate from Stanford University in December 1999, is on leave from Portland State University, where he is currently an assistant professor of history, and has devoted the year to a study of episcopal authority and community in northern France in the eleventh and twelfth centuries. "Urban Space, Memory, and Episcopal Authority: The Bishops of Amiens in Peace and Conflict, 1073-1164," published in Viator in 2000 was co-winner of the 2002 Van Courtlandt Elliott Prize for best first article in all fields of medieval studies, awarded by the Medieval Academy of America. His recent essays appear in Varieties of Devotion in the Middle Ages and Renaissance, ed. Susan Karant-Nunn (Turnhout, 2003) and in Teaching and Learning in Northern France: Education Before the University, ed. Sally Vaughn and Jay Rubenstein (forthcoming, 2005).

DIANE REILLY, a Canadian, is a graduate of the University of Toronto and currently assistant professor in the history of art at the Henry Radford Hope School of Fine Arts, Indiana University. Dr. Reilly is researching twelfth-century manuscript painting from the Abbey of Cîteaux. She has published articles on the French Giant Bible and on Romanesque illustrations of the Song of Songs in Scriptorium and in Word & Image. Essays on the Roda and Ripoll Bibles, the Cluniac Giant Bible, and the Saint-Vaast Bible are forthcoming in various collections.

The final number of undocumented monastic sites in Ireland continues to dwindle each year. Those sites that are not well documented are now down to three out of a total of 411. Each of these is on a quite inaccessible island, difficult to get to. Two are in the Atlantic, and there are no jetties. The search has begun to document and photograph the more obscure sights for which there is little documentation apart from their mention in various Annals. There are some hundred of these sites which are difficult, and indeed impossible, to find even on ordnance surveys. All being well, it is hoped to be completed by the year 2007.

THE INSTITUTE LIBRARY

In the year 2004-2005 we added 1023 new titles, nearly 200 bound volumes of journals, and about 80 reels of microfilm. Our holdings now comprise about 115,000 printed volumes, 9,300 manuscript works on about 8000 reels (from over 500 different libraries and archives). We have 8500 uncatalogued works on microfiche, and nearly 800 CD-ROMs and DVDs, including 720 that contain the Papal Registers from the Archivio Segreto Vaticano, covering the papacies from Innocent III (1198) to Pius II (1464). We are the sole Toronto licensees for several on-line resources, notably the CETEDOC (Corpus Christianorum), Littera Apostolica, and the In principio database of Latin manuscript incipits.

The Library gave access to 635 University of Toronto students, 48 faculty members, and 32 visitors from other Canadian universities. It welcomed 12 researchers from the United States and 10 from overseas universities. Locked offices were provided to Édouard Jeuneau (Paris-Toronto), Ann Dillon (U.K.), Reijo Tyorinoja (Helsinki), Bernhard Klein (Weimar), John Moorhead (Brisbane), Debra Foran (Toronto), and Franco Morenzoni (Geneva).

Thirty-eight requests for interlibrary loans were granted. Among the 107 that were denied, most were for books that are available in other Canadian libraries.

Others were for reference and palaeography books, which are never lent, and books too fragile to send or to photocopy.

Ron B. Thomson, Director of Publications for PIMS, has made available a collection of 2100 offprints from journals and Festschriften not on our shelves, and has composed a digitized author's catalogue of them. He will continue adding to the collection as more offprints become available.

Additional shelving for the Palaeography Room and the Reference Room was made possible by a gift from the Joan and Clifford Hatch Foundation. Joseph Pope gave us two parchment manuscript pages. A donation from the Janet E. Hutchison Foundation made possible retrospective buying of books in English literature, art, and history. A number of books in hagiography were purchased with a fund given by Rev. Edward Jackman, O.P. The Augustinian Fathers made a gift in recognition of Prof. Brian Stock's direction of the thesis of Father Henry McErlean, O.S.A. Funds from the Friends of the Library allowed us to purchase missing items in a number of book series, notably the Victoria County History series. The Walter Principe Book Fund was used to purchase theology books, and James Carson asked that his donation be used to purchase books of philosophy in honour of the late Monsignor Edward Synan. G. Frank Suma and Steve Pede made gifts towards the conservation binding of rare books.

The microfilm collection was enriched by several gifts of microfilms. The late James Carr, a 1970s student of Father Leonard Boyle, bequeathed to the Library his microfilms of 62 complete manuscripts and 40 partial manuscripts from 48 different libraries – all in the area of medieval polyphony and chant. Paul Burns (Vancouver) gave a dozen films of manuscripts of classical and patristic authors. Henry Ansgar Kelly's donation of ten films of Supplicationes from the Archivio Segreto Vaticano followed an earlier, larger gift of similar nature. Margot King donated 580 microfiches – most of them concerning hagiography of women saints. Dr Neil Moran gave a film of a complete manuscript and assorted folios from many others, all relating to Italo-Greek music.

Jocelyn Hillgarth, Senior Fellow emeritus of PIMS, sent from his library in Majorca three rare sets: a 12-volume in 6 folio edition of the Annales ecclesiastici of Caesar Baronius (Cologne, 1609); the 16 in-quarto volume set of Le Nain de Tillemont, Mémoires pour servir à l'histoire des six premiers siècles (Venice, 1732); and Lucas Holstein, Codex regularum monasticarum et canonicarum, 6 volumes in 3 (Vienna, 1759). Father William J. Sheehan, C.S.B., keeper of printed books at the Biblioteca Apostolica Vaticana, sent a number of items that were in the library of Father Leonard Boyle, O.P, including manuscript facsimiles and three folio volumes to complete our set of Richard Krautheimer, Corpus basilicarum Christianarum Romae: le basiliche cristiane antiche Romae (sec. 4-9) (Rome, 1937).

We received books from the Journal of Medieval Latin, the ITER on-line bibliography project, the Central European University (Budapest), and the Centre for Reformation and Renaissance Studies. Individuals who made gifts of books (July 2004–June 2005) were T.D. Barnes, Virginia Brown, Anna Burko, Rev. Philippe Cappelle (Paris), Isabelle Cochelin, Albrecht Diem, Rev. Martin Dimnik, Steven Dumont, Paul Edward Dutton, William Edwards, James Estes, George Ferzoco, Bernard Gilson (Paris), Joseph Goering, John Grant, Joseph Gulsoy, Jacqueline Hamesse (Louvain-la-Neuve), James Hankins (Harvard), David Klausner, F. Donald Logan (Boston), Scott Mandelbrote (Oxford), Rev. James McConica, Chris McDonough, Brian Merilees, Giordano Monzio (Milan), Neil Moran, Jacqueline Murray, Balasz Nagy, Elod Nemerkenyi (Budapest), Andy Orchard, Thomas Osborne, Glenn Peers, Rev. Carlo Pioppi (Rome), Joseph Pope, Erika Rummel, Brian Stock, Alain Stoclet, and Jill Webster. We extend apologies to any donors inadvertently omitted here. To them and to donors of books to the Friends of the Library we express our sincere thanks.

THE INSTITUTE WEBSITE

Modest changes, aesthetic and organizational, to the Institute website announced the new academic year in September 2004. Once again, I am grateful to don Faustino Avagliano, Archivist, for his generous permission to use illustrations from manuscripts in the Archivio dell'Abbazia, Montecassino, on the site. The following months brought substantive renovations to the site's individual pages, in particular those devoted to Publications. Various technical enhancements allowed for more efficient browsing of the complete catalogue and the display (and linking) of new titles; visitors to the site were also given an opportunity to view, download, or print the first chapter (or significant portion) of a new publication using Acrobat Reader, a practice adopted by many scholarly presses. From January to December 2004, the site received some 878,331 hits, a full 25% higher than for the same period in the previous two years. The total number of pages viewed for the year were 114,184, again a similar increase over the same period in 2003. Improvements in the site and their success are owed to the work of many people. Particular thanks to Dan Derkach, Senior Network Specialist and Andreea Gheorghe, Data Centre Administrator and Programmer at the CHASS Computing Facility in the University of Toronto, and as always, to my colleagues Jean Hoff and Jonathan Black, for their good-natured tolerance of my many impositions on their time and expertise.

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

This past year the Friends of the Library have been helping with the conservation, restoration, and acquisition of missing numbers of some of our frequently consulted series, as we did several years ago so successfully with the more than 250 volumes of the Rolls Series. This time the Librarian has been concentrating on the volumes of the Victoria County History series, the Camden Society, the Henry Bradshaw Society, the Monumenta Germaniae Historica, and other much worn collections which urgently need to be conserved in order to be available to readers.

As has now become a tradition, we sponsored two lectures this year. On 6 October, Suzanne Akbari of the University of Toronto's Department of English and the Centre for Medieval Studies offered a fascinating study in her lecture on "Empty Idols and a False Prophet: European Representations of Islam, 1100–1450." The lecture in memory of Leonard E. Boyle, OP was given on 15 April by a long-time friend of Father Boyle, Anthony Grafton, Henry Putnam University Professor of History at Princeton University. Professor Grafton's lecture, "Johannes Trithemius: History, Philology, and Magic in Renaissance Germany," dealt with the enigmatic and often misunderstood hermetic philosopher and polymath, Johannes Trithemius, and included manuscripts now in the Vatican Library which Professor Grafton had discussed with Father Boyle.

The Christmas Tea, held in the Laurence K. Shook Common Room on the Friday after American Thanksgiving, this year 26th November, attracted many students and Friends. At our raffle, thanks in particular to the zeal of Greti Dinkova-Brunn, we sold an unprecedented number of tickets for a chance to win a wonderful array of prizes donated by Sheila Campbell, George Rigg, University of Toronto Press, Father Dimnik, Sine Nomine, and others.

On 29 January in spacious Robert Madden Hall of St. Michael's College, Marc Cels, a Ph.D. candidate and member of the Book Fair Committee, with a well organized team of assistants, held a sale of used, and some new, books donated by retiring professors, patrons, the U of T Press, and Friends. The sale realized over $4,000, and we are particularly grateful to Margot King, a generous patron from the time of our first book fair, for her donation of many of the remaining volumes from Peregrina Publications.

In the spring, our capital fund, which exceeded $150,000, was converted to a restricted endowment. This is one of the goals we set out to achieve when we came into existence in April 1991, and we are delighted that with the support of our Patrons and Friends we have at last achieved it. The endowment will be added to every year, as in the past, but in addition a portion of the annual earnings will now be given to the Library for acquisitions.

The adopt-a-journal programme has attracted new donors; and we have received many gifts in kind. We are grateful to our Friends for their generous financial support and for gifts of books. Without our volunteers and the Committee of the Friends of the Library, we would not be able to accomplish much of what we now do. There are others who help behind the scenes, and I would like to thank all our supporters for their time, their gifts and donations, and for the many other ways in which they have been helping to maintain the Institute Library as an important resource for medieval research.

Ann M. Hutchison, Chair, Friends of the Library

SINE NOMINE ENSEMBLE FOR MEDIEVAL MUSIC

Sine Nomine presented three concerts under its own auspices this season. Christmas in Court and Chapel offered Christmas music from the international world of late-Gothic courts and their household chapels. The programme featured - in addition to vocal polyphony - both bas and haut instrumental bands. Medieval Roots and Branches explored (with circumspection) the possible connections between medieval music and the "folk" music of European cultures. The last concert, Pilgrimage to Compostela, consisted, not surprisingly, of music associated with the great shrine of St. James, as well as music from competing cult centres. A version of this concert was given - and well received - at a conference devoted to the pilgrimage to Santiago. The group also performed and lectured for other concert and academic organizations. The scholarly endeavours of the various members continued, although the fruits of those endeavours will not appear until the following President's Report.

BENEFACTIONS AND BEQUESTS

The Institute welcomes gifts and bequests in furtherance of its objectives. Donations can be directed to the Institute itself, to the Mediaeval Studies Foundation, or to specific funds and named gifts. All such donations (including books, works of art or other artifacts appropriate to the pursuit of medieval studies) will qualify for Income Tax relief in Canada and in the United States.

The Institute's Library has benefitted from its inception from gifts and bequests which have provided the foundation of some of its most important collections. Permanent endowment is sought also for academic positions and projects to which a donor's name can be attached. Named Chairs are being sought to support research and teaching in the central disciplines of medieval thought and culture, in particular in Philosophy, Theology, Liturgy, Canon Law and Art and Archaeology. Named funds may also be established for student scholarships, research grants and visiting professorships. Donors may wish to underwrite an ongoing series of publications, individual publications, or the Institute journal, Mediaeval Studies. There are opportunities as well for named or memorial areas in the Institute, including its seminar rooms, areas within the Library, and the Library itself.

MEDIAEVAL STUDIES FOUNDATION

The Mediaeval Studies Foundation holds in trust the endowment funds of the Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies. It exists only to support the work of the Institute and manages trusts and restricted funds directed to specific purposes, disbursing earnings for the operation of the Institute's scholarly programmes. To facilitate contributions from the United States of America, a complementary American Corporation has been established (see below).

SPECIAL FUNDS

Among the special funds invested to support specific objectives are the following:

THE LEONARD E. BOYLE CHAIR IN MANUSCRIPT STUDIES

In the Spring of 2000 the Institute decided to found a permanent Chair in Manuscript Studies - especially Latin Palaeography and Codicology - to honour Father Leonard Boyle's long association with the Institute, and to secure the legacy of his approaches to research and teaching through original medieval sources. The holder of the Chair, as a Senior Fellow of the Institute, will have special responsibility for and oversight of the outstanding research collections in the Institute's Library.

The capital fund to support the Chair is to be raised over a five-year period, and donations will be matched on a one-to-one basis by the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation of New York. The endowment will be held and invested by the Mediaeval Studies Foundation. The Committee of Patrons for the Chair is comprised of the following scholars:

Chair: Prof. Giles Constable, School of Historical Studies, Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton, New Jersey.

Prof. Elizabeth Brown, emerita, Brooklyn College, New York.

Prof. Guglielmo Cavallo, Istituto di Paleografia, Facoltà di Lettere, Università La Sapienza, Rome.

Prof. Dr. Peter Landau, Leopold-Wenger-Institut für Rechtsgeschichte, Universität München.

Prof. Henry Mayr-Harting, Regius Professor of Ecclesiastical History, Oxford University, United Kingdom.

Prof. Karl Morrison, Department of History, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, New Jersey.

Rev. William J. Sheehan, CSB, Keeper of Printed Books, Bibliotheca Apostolica Vaticana, Vatican City.

Prof. Dr. Ludwig Schugge, Karl Schmid-Str. 4, Universität Zürich.

William P. Stoneman, Esq., Librarian, The Houghton Library, Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.

THE FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY FUND

The long-term objective of the Friends of the Library Committee is to build up a fund whose earnings would support the purchase of manuscripts, books, periodicals, microfilms, CD-ROM materials, readers, and computer equipment.

THE CARR MEMORIAL FUND FOR PAPAL REGISTERS

The Carr Memorial Collection holds films of medieval papal registers. The Fund allows us to continue acquisition of films and/or CD-ROMS of the registers from A.D. 872 to 1464 including, eventually, the registers of the Avignon popes, making this Collection the most complete outside of the Vatican.

THE MICHAEL M. SHEEHAN MEMORIAL FUND

Created in memory of Father Michael M. Sheehan, the earnings of this fund are used to provide scholarship awards in medieval history or law.

THE EDWARD A. SYNAN MEMORIAL FUND

The earnings from this fund, created by colleagues, former students, and friends of the late Msgr Edward Synan, will support studies or research in medieval philosophy.

AMERICAN PONTIFICAL INSTITUTE FOR MEDIAEVAL STUDIES CORPORATION

As noted above, "The American Pontifical Institute for Mediaeval Studies Corporation," #1705 308 4016 038, has been established to facilitate contributions of persons and organizations in the United States. Gifts qualify for charitable exemptions as provided by the United States Internal Revenue Service.

Anyone considering a gift or bequest to support the Institute's work is asked to contact James K. McConica, C.S.B., O.C., President, 59 Queen's Park Crescent East, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, M5S 2C4.
