

Visiting Scholars Programme

PONTIFICAL INSTITUTE OF MEDIAEVAL STUDIES

Application Form

Visiting Fellows are scholars who have received a doctorate or its equivalent more than five years prior to the granting of Visiting Fellow status. Research Fellows are those accepted into the Licence in Mediaeval Studies and other scholars given this status by Council. Normally such scholars will have received a doctorate or its equivalent no more than five years prior to the granting of the status. Guests are doctoral candidates who wish to pursue research at the Institute for a time period of less than an academic year. These positions offer the use of the facilities of the Institute and, whenever possible, an office in the Institute or its research library.
